

Criterion Theatre

Our next production is

A View from the BRIDGE

by Arthur Miller

May 19th to May 26th 2001

In the shadow of Brooklyn Bridge, the longshoremen have imported a code of honour and silence from their native Italy. Eddie Carbone is a pillar of this community: loyal, reliable, a man absorbed by his family. But Eddie has a secret obsession which is threatening to destroy all those who are closest to him.

Our production features Matthew Sweatman as Eddie, and combines the talents of new and established Criterion actors.

The play is directed by John Ruscoe (The Madness of George III and Piaf).
